"Fish" has multiple meanings. First, it is the singular noun referring to an animal with a tail and fins that help him swim and live only inside the water. This noun, anyway, is irregular, which means it doesn't simply add an "-s" in the end, to form plural. Its plural form, actually, is the same with its singular.

Fish vs. Fishes - grammar

Fish are gill -bearing aquatic craniate animals that lack limbs with digits. They form a sister group to the tunicates, together forming the olfactores. Included in this definition are the living hagfish, lampreys, and cartilaginous and bony fish as well as various extinct related groups.
