Quiet time with God is simply spending time with Him. Thinking about Him. Talking to Him. Listening to Him. There are no requirements about the length of time or time of day. Scripture simply invites us into a closer relationship with our Heavenly Father. Did you catch that? All you need to do, according to scripture, to have a close relationship with God is to spend time with Him.

Woman: A Proverbs 31 Ministry

God gave us 24 hours in a day to accomplish what we need to get done.

This includes adequate sleep, rest, and play. However, it's when we sleep too much, rest too much, or play too much that we fall into trouble. Some people fall on the other side of this spectrum by spending too much time on the job or doing school work.

Catholic News Service ...

To find time for God, we must seize present opportunities, deal with known sin, and establish proper priorities. Each of these principles is illustrated positively in Paul and negatively in Felix and Drusilla.

1. To find time for God, we must seize present opportunities.

Many people today long for something more; we thirst for God and a deeper spirituality, but aren't sure how to get there or even where to begin. Spiritual masters have always believed that prayer is crucial in our relationship with God, but many of us feel unsure about beginning to pray; or easily abandon prayer when the going gets rough.

Many people today are thirsty for God and feel a desire for an intense, personal prayer life that is deep and ongoing. But they encounter obstacles that prevent them from following the path seriously, and especially from persevering on it. Time for God was written with these desires and difficulties in mind. In Time for God, author Jacques Philippe mainly concentrates on mental prayer: prayer that consists of facing God in solitude and silence for a time in order to enter into intimate, loving communion with him. Practicing this kind of prayer regularly is considered by all spiritual masters to be an indispensable path that gives access to genuine Christian life—a path to knowing and loving God that empowers us to respond to his call to holiness addressed to each individual. Philippe draws on years of experience as a spiritual guide to

This work is an invitation and guide for young people to bring the realm of Heaven to earth. As children discover their identity through the revelation of the Father's love, they are released to fulfill their Royal Mission: to demonstrate the Kingdom of God by living a life of miracles. Each chapter explains and identifies the inheritance that God's sons and daughters possess, such as the Father's love, the anointing and indwelling of the Holy Spirit, faith, prayer, and the keys of power and authority. This book is not only a companion for the "journey", but also provides a meeting place for children to encounter God's presence that will transform their hearts and lives.
